

Pedal the Parkway 2017

Free to the Public on the Colonial Parkway

Bicycle, jog or walk along the Colonial Parkway on Saturday May 6th 2017!
Enjoy the 20th Annual Pedal the Parkway

When: Saturday, May 6th 2017 from 8 AM to 1 PM. Free but bike helmets and registration required.

Where: Pedal the Parkway is held on the Colonial Parkway section running from Williamsburg's Newport Ave to Jamestown.

What: Pedal the Parkway will be held on Saturday, May 6, 2017. The Colonial Parkway is closed to motor vehicles for cyclists, runners and walkers of all ages to enjoy a car free Parkway. Each year over 1000 people enjoy the beautiful scenery along the Parkway during this event.

Who: The local BikeWalk Williamsburg and Williamsburg Area Bicyclists (WAB) are once again organizing the 20th Annual Pedal the Parkway for an enjoyable outdoor experience.

Why: Fun, free, and family-friendly alongside the beautiful James River. Non-competitive, start at your own time, go at your own pace. Free bicycle helmets for children at the Jamestown end while they last. Suitable for young families, special-needs athletes.
